

So. Calif has very congested airspace and it should not be made more complex unless necessary. Present R2503 has worked for years. Why now force general aviation pilots far out over the Pacific Ocean out of gliding range? If the military is REALLY concerned about a safety issue, do they also plan to close Interstate 5 in the name of safety?